Bible Study Outline
11:00 AM

October 11, 2017

Subject: "Talking With God: What To Say When You Don't Know How To Pray." (Book by Adam Weber), Part II

Introduction: During the first quarter of 2017, our bible study series examined the benefits of, "Centering Ourselves." During the second quarter, we learned how to, "Stay Calm During Anxious Times." Our third quarter bible study series focused on the importance of, "Building Healthy and Meaningful Relationships."

Adam Weber in his book, "Talking With God: What To Say When You Don't Know How To Pray," assists new as well as older Christians, with strengthening their daily prayer life. During the last quarter of 2017, our bible study time will focus on Weber's book, by using it as a resource to help everyone become more comfortable with talking to God (praying).

Scriptures: Luke 15:1-24

Points to Ponder: "What To Say When You Don't Know How To Pray." Things we need to know and do that will help our prayer life.

- Never forget, God knows us better than anyone and yet God still wants to hang around us…

- It is important to get to know the Heart of God...

- It makes God feel good to talk to us...
