Subject: "Building Healthy and Meaningful Relationships" Part IV

Introduction: The success of many of the Star Wars of the bible, such as Moses, Joshua, David, Nehemiah, Solomon, Jesus, Peter, and Paul, can directly be attributed to the relationships they established. There is an old proverb that says, "Show me your friends and I'll tell you who you are."

Author Clint Swindell, in an article published in Forbes magazine entitled, "Surround Yourself With The Right People," recommended action items to help individuals surround themselves with the right people. Swindell suggested one should, "analyze your crew, filter out the negativity, and dedicate time to the relationship." During the third quarter of this year, our bible study will focus on various biblical characters who will assist us in ascertaining spiritual and biblical advice, as it relates to building healthy relationships.

Scriptures: James 1:19

Points to Ponder: "When you are building healthy and meaningful relationships, it is important to…"

- understand the importance of listening more than you talk.

- understand when to talk and when to shut-up.

- understand the value of a "woosah" moment.
