Subject: There is a time for every season.

Scripture: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:

“A time to be born and a time to die ,a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.”

Introduction: We are reminded in Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 that there is a time for everything and every season. Whether your season is in the wilderness, transformation, letting go of old attitudes, moving out of your comfort zone to experience new horizons or perhaps in a liminal state. Everything will work out in God’s designated time. We have to remember to hold on to the promises of God and don’t let go.

Questions to ponder:

- 1) What must you do to stay on the journey?
- 2) Can you be content with God’s timing?
