Subject: Overcoming Rejection

Scriptures: Psalm 139:14

“I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;”

Introduction: Rejection can be tough at any age. God made each of us with the innate desire to be loved and accepted just as we are. Yet we live in a world where people are always seeking approval, affirmation, and validation. Some are suffering from an unhealthy need for approval while seeking self-worth. How can we overcome rejection that simmers at the core of our being? The first step towards healing is to reject any thoughts, words, or actions that run contrary to the Bible. For the Bible reminds us that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. All of us were formed by the finger of God regardless of size, color, height, or creed. In the eyes of God, we are all beautiful.

Points to Ponder:

1. So how do we overcome rejection in life?

2. How do we heal from the pains of past rejection that leak into our present situations?
