Subject: "The Benefits of Hope" (Part IV)

Introduction: Hope according to "Baker Encyclopedia of the Bible" is, "an expectation or belief in the fulfillment of something desired. Present hurts and uncertainty over what the future holds create the constant need for hope. Worldwide poverty, hunger, disease, and human potential to generate terror and destruction create a longing for something better. Biblical hope is what God will do in the future."

The Apostle Paul in Romans 15:13, shares with us some of the "Benefits of Hope."

Scriptures: Romans 15:4-13

Points to Ponder: The benefits of hope are...

- it will give you joy.

- it will give you peace.

- it will bless you while you wait for things to be fulfilled.
